

COPENHAGEN COOKING

Egon Müller participated in the opening dinner of Copenhagen Cooking 2012 and is now back to launch his exciting 2012 vintage.

Egon Müller is a leading producer of Riesling wines and his Scharzhofbergers are famous for their exquisite purity of fruit and finesse – to the extent that these wines are the most expensive white wines in the World.

Following the launch and the lunch, Champagnes will be served at Sølyst, in the garden, and - if weather permits - at the Bellevue Beach below Sølyst.

After refreshing our exteriors and interiors we continue with a launch of the 2011 vintage from Peter Sisseck, before Egon Müller will introduce us to the phenomenon of The Great 2010 Vintage and the Großer Ring Versteigerungen followed by a vertical tasting of Scharzhofbergers.

For those in the mood for further verticals we shall switch from Riesling to Pinot Noir and taste 12 vintages Gevrey-Chambertin 1. Cru 'Clos de Varoilles' Monopole Domaine des Varoilles to see the profiles of each individual growing season.

A variety of one or multiple bite wonders, soups etc. accompany the tastings according to the weather.
